

circle

Supporting families in Scotland

OUR WORK

Supporting families affected by parental imprisonment

Supporting men in their role as parent or carer

Preventative work with families with pre-school children.

Supporting families with children affected by parental drug & alcohol use

Supporting families with children at risk of school exclusion

CIRCLE'S TEAMS

Advocating for families & appropriate social change at every level to achieve better possibilities for families

Kinship care assessments and support for children and extended families

Workforce development through student learning placements & training

Early Years support to families

